

Dallas Attorney Matt Yarbrough Highlighted

Among Dallas' Top Corporate Defenders

DALLAS — Business attorney Matt Yarbrough, founder of The Yarbrough Law Group and Yarbrough Strategic Advisors in Dallas, once again has earned a spot among North Texas' top business defense attorneys. Mr. Yarbrough is one of 15 attorneys profiled in "The Defenders," a special section published in the May 22 edition of the Dallas Business Journal.

To compile "The Defenders" listing, Dallas Business Journal editors solicited nominations from across Dallas/Fort Worth in search of attorneys whose reputations and track records put them among the area's top defense attorneys for corporate clients. Mr. Yarbrough is the only 2009 honoree to have been previously recognized in "The Defenders," having first earned the honor in the 2007 version of the list.

"The attorneys honored on this list indeed represent some of the best defenders this city has to offer," says Mr. Yarbrough. "It is especially gratifying to be included, particularly since the editors made their selections based on recommendations from other attorneys, including some who I've faced in court."

Mr. Yarbrough is an accomplished trial lawyer and complex commercial litigator. Prior to entering private practice, he served a distinguished career with the United States Department of Justice as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Texas.

Routinely recognized among the country's top litigators, Mr. Yarbrough has been featured on the Texas Super Lawyers listing and among D Magazine's Best Lawyers in Dallas, and was named one of the "Go-To Lawyers for High Tech Texas Companies" in Texas Lawyer newspaper. In 2003, the National Law Journal named Matt to a list of the top young attorneys in the nation. He also has been honored by the Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and Immigration and Naturalization Service, now known as the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, as an "Outstanding Prosecutor."

The Yarbrough Law Group is a Dallas-based firm that represents businesses and individuals in business litigation, intellectual property, white collar criminal defense, data security, data breach, privacy issues, governmental compliance, immigration, and internal investigations.
